Press Release – October 2009

ALSAGER COMMUNITY PRIDE SUCCESS

Alsager has scooped the Cheshire Community Pride Competition 2009 runner up award for towns with a population of between 10k and 30k.

The Runners Up certificate was presented to the Chairman of Alsager Town Council Councillor Simon Roberson at the Annual Award ceremony held on Thursday 24th September at Northwich Memorial Hall.

The Chairman of Alsager Town Council says “This is a great honour for Alsager! It is a shame that we were pipped at the post by Nantwich, but I believe it shows the ongoing improvements that have been made to the Town by the Alsager In Bloom group. The In Bloom group put in tremendous efforts to achieve such high standards around Alsager along with support from Alsager Town Council, the Chamber of Trade, Alsager Partnership and local residents and the business community. I hope we can keep the improvements going over the next 12 months and win the top award!”
